

Crisis Intervention Worker – Casual/Relief

Job description

Safe Haven is looking for the right people to join our team. We require Relief/Casual Crisis Intervention Worker, to work Saturdays, cover for holidays, help with fundraising activities, and additional shifts throughout the week. We offer a Great Team Environment and Flexible Hours!

Come join our team a Crisis Intervention Worker on a relief/casual basis. Come work for an organization that envisions a community free of violence and abuse as well as a community where intimate partners and family members treat each other with dignity, respect and compassion.

The Company:

Safe Haven is a non-profit charitable organization that provides emergency shelter, public education and diverse, non-judgmental support services for women, children and men in the community in order to stop the cycle of violence.

The Position:

Safe Haven is looking for casual staff to work fill in shifts for full time staff absences, and Saturday shifts, including overnight shifts. Client related work in our Emergency Residential Women's Shelter through: Crisis Support, Emotional Support, Psycho-Educational Sessions and by providing information, referrals and support. We're looking for someone with confidence, strong interpersonal and communication skills, conflict management skills as well as completion of High School and some/completion of University or College.

The Benefits:

- Pick your own schedule
- Great pay, very competitive wages
- Guaranteed shifts

The Location:

Safe Haven is located in the town of Taber - famous for our corn, large amounts of sunshine, beautiful surrounding farmland and a welcoming small town atmosphere. Located 50 km east of Lethbridge and 115 km west of Medicine Hat, you'll love interacting with the 8500 people in the area.

Why should you apply?

You want to help and support those affected by Domestic Violence!

You want a schedule that allows you to work and live your life!

You want to provide services reflective of our client's needs!

You want to work with a great team and love going to work every day!

Casual/Part-time

Salary: $19.00 per hour

Part-time hours: 12-20 per week

Benefits:

- Casual dress
- Company events
- Flexible schedule
- On-site parking

Schedule:

The successful applicant will have an availability to pick up a variety of shifts, including overnights. Saturday availability is important for the role.

Ability to commute/relocate:

- Taber, AB T1G 2H9: reliably commute or plan to relocate before starting work (within 30 minutes of Taber)

Education:

- Secondary School (preferred)
- Experience with crisis intervention preferred

Email resume and cover letter to director@tabersafehaven.ca